

GREAT SPECTACLE AT THE 31ST ANDREA MARGUTTI TROPHY

Nice qualifying heats have taken place ahead of the final stages of the 31st Andrea Margutti Trophy at the International Circuit 7 Laghi in Castelletto di Branduzzo (Pavia).

Highly spectacular qualifying heats as always at the Andrea Margutti Trophy organized by Parma Motorsport have taken place at the Circuit 7 Laghi in Castelletto di Branduzzo (Pavia). Qualifying heats have named the main protagonists that will face the final stages with Prefinals starting on Sunday at 10:50 and Finals at 13:30.

Van Valstijn and Federer to the fore in KZ2.

A jumped start by a fraction of a second cost the victory in KZ2 to Giacomo Pollini (NGM Motorsport/Formula K-TM Racing), who was eventually handed a 5s time penalty that relegated him to P5. The victory went therefore to Senna Van Valstijn (CPB Sport/Sodikart-TM Racing-Vega), who posted the pole position time, and proceeded Fabian Federer on Maranello Kart and Vyacheslav Putyatin (CPB Sport/Sodikart-TM Racing). The fourth place went to Moritz Ebner (TecTav/BirelART-TM Racing) and the fifth to Luca Bosco (Manetti Motorsport/BirelART-TM Racing). The top 3 was repeated in the second heat, as Van Valstijn led again Federer and Putyatin, while Giacomo Pollini recovered up to P4 leading Luca Bosco and Moritz Ebner. Alessandro Buran (Renda Motorsport/BirelART-Vortex) has been quite unlucky as he was recovering from a technical problem in the first heat, but spun in the second one.

In the second heat he crossed the finish line behind Yuanpu Cui (KR Motorsport/KR-lame) and Alex Powell (Kidix/KR-lame) in P3, but Olivieri was later on handed a 10s penalty for a not correct start and therefore he was relegated to P16. Barbieri came second in the first heat, but then lost some positions at the end of the second one. Matteo De Palo (Mixauto Motorsport/Tony Kart-lame) displayed a good crescendo of results.
